

Russian Coal Market In Brief (2010)

Ignatov & Company provides a wide variety of informational products referring Eurasian mining markets – in particular a series of coal market “operative” reports for year 2010.

“Russian Coal Market In Brief” interim report is one of them; a report contains data on coal mining (total production and underground vs. surface), coal domestic sales, coal export and import per past months of 2010.

118 pages, 26 tables, 55 diagrams

Price: USD 2,000

To order the report – click here

Report Content

Coal Extraction

By basin, company; surface vs. underground; coking vs. thermal; bituminous, anthracite and lignite

Coal Domestic Sales

By application

Coal Export Sales

By destination country

Coal Import

By sourcing country

Market Brief Analysis

IGNATOV & COMPANY is a group of consultants and market researchers providing world-class service for international clients since 1998, with special emphasis on the transitive economies in Central & Eastern Europe, Central Asia, and Western Asia.

Our well-trained team of consultants, researchers, and analysts has gained special knowledge and good experience in market research, business and engineering consulting, company intelligence, foresight and similar services for various kinds of clients.

Established with a group of the Russian former governmental analysts at September 1998 our company became a recognizable international player less than in 10 years.

Our multinational team of 82 full-time employees as well as over 240 freelancers successfully works in 30 offices worldwide covering 50 countries in 4 continents.

<http://www.ignatov.biz>

<http://www.emergingmarketsreports.com>

e-Mail: orders@ignatov.biz

Phone/Fax: +7 (495) 681 16 89

Skype: icgconsulting